BLACK STAR STEAMBOATS

New Steamer Line Chartered at Washington, N. C.

THE SCHOOL INSPECTION

Commencement Exercises at St. Mary's School-Friends Much Exercised that Dr. Bratton Must Leave State Board of Agriculture.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Rileigh, N. C., May 23.—The Black
Star Line Steamboat Company, of Washington, N. C., was chartered to-day with 100,000 capital. E. L. Godrey is to be manager, and other incorporators are A.
II. Redmon and Roshi Redmon, both of Kalamazoo, Mich.

The Albemarie Lumber Company, of Heriford, was chartered to-day with 100,000 capital. A. T. Holmes, of Washington, N. C., and J. J. Fleetwood, of Heriford, being the principal incorporators.

Hortford, being the principal Incorporators.

The Board of Trustees of A. and M. Colege (being the same as the State Board of Agriculture) decided last night to co-perate with the Board of College Visiors in forming a joint committee to visit und inspect the college at least once a ear. The Commissioner of Agriculture is to appoint the committeemen from the rustees. Those on the partiof the Board of Visitors are D. A. Tompkins, Charbite; W. H. Rogan, Hight Point, and David Clark, Charlotte.

ST. MARYS SCHOOL.

This was commencement day with St.

Rosset Meares, Annie Gates Root, ry Allen Short, Florence Jackson Mary Allen Short, Florence Jackson Thomas, Mary Wood Winslow, Those receiving certificates in special studies are: Caro Brevard, Kate Herndon, Helen Davis, Mary Exum Meares, Isabelle Gary, Augusta Jones, Evic Roberts,

The students and patrons of the school are much exercised over the selection of a successor to Dr. Bratton as rector and principal, he being bishop-elect of and principal, he being bishop-elect of Mississippl, Dr. Bratton will remain here until September. The trustees will meet July 1st, to elect his successor. The report of Dr. Winston, president, to the trustees of the A. and M. College, shows that the enrollment has increased from 379 to 506 students. There are 131 students in agriculture.

students in agriculture.

REDRIGANIZED.

The State Board of Agriculture last night reorganized its committees as follows: Executive Committee—A. Connor, of Stokes county; R. L. Doughton Alleghany; J. P. McRee, Scotland; R. W. Scott, Alamance, Finance Committee—Major W. A. Graham, Lenoir; A. T. McCallum, Robeson; W. M. Dunn, Craven; J. M. Forehand, Stokes, The board will probably be in session the temainder of this week.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING

Marriage of Mr. R. L. Dibbrell to Miss Mary E. Boyd.

Mary E. Boyd.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

REIDSVILLE, N. C., May 28.—At the family residence, on Main Street, last night, Miss Mary E. Boyd and Mr. R. L. Dibbrell were united in marriage, the ceremony and decorations being the prettiest had at any home wedding in Reidsville recently. The notable social event was witnessed by a. fow friends of the contracting partles. Owing to a recent death in the family, only a few of her many friends were present.

The Rev. D. I. Craig, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, read the ceremony, and Mr. Francis Womack played a march from Lohengrin. The bridal party was preceded by Messrs. John R. Boyd and P. Watt Richardson, with ropes of smilax, forming an alse through which the party passed.

P. Watt inclination, with a smilex, forming an aisle through which the party passed.

Miss Sallie R. Boyd, sister of the bride, came first, as maid of honor, and was gowned in pink silk tissue with Duchess lace, and carrying bridesmaid roses. Then followed Mrs. W. W. Gordon, of New Orleans, matron of honor, gowned in white organdy over pink taffeia, and rarrying glaso liridesmaid roses. [The groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. W. T. Swann, of Danville, followed by the bride on the arm of her brother, Colonel S. H. Boyd, of Greensboro. The bride's dress was white crepe meteor over chiffon, trimmed elaborately with real lace and orange blossoms. Her yell was held in place with orange blossoms, During the beautifully-read service was held in place with orange blossoms, During the beautifully-read service "Angol's Serenade" was softy rendered under the skillful touch of Mr. Francis Womack, and the scene was lovely to behold. The parlor had been decorated in palms and white liles.

The color scheme in the dining room was white and green, and the library, where the unusually handsome presents were displayed, was brilliantly illuminated with red kumps.

where the unusually handsome presents were displayed, was brilliantly illuminated with red lamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Dibrell left at midnight for the Sapphire section of Western North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return to their home in Danville, and after spending a week there will travel abroad for several months.

Some of the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Scott, Mr. C. N. Byans, George D. Boyd, John R. Boyd, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. John Bpencer, Mrs. Mary L. Dibbrell, mother of the groom; Miss Bannerman, Misses Apperson and Walker, Mr. R. T. Dibbrell, J. I. Pritchett, W. T. Harris and H. M. Vdeter, of Danville; Mr. Robert R. Boyd, of Raleigh; Mr. Charles P. Richardson, New Orleans; Colonel and Mrs. S. H. Boyd, of Greensboro; Mrs. J. H. Walsh, R. Percy Gray, Henry and Thomas Tate, of Greensboro; Mrs. J. H. Walsh, R. Percy Gray, Henry and Thomas Tate, of Greensboro; Mrs. J. H. Walsh, R. Dibbrell is a member of the well known tobacco firm of Dibbrell Bros., of Danville, among the largest exporters and handlers of leaf tobacco in this gountry, Socially he is very popular, and ranks high as a supcessful, publicspirited and enterprising business man.

The bride is one of the South's well known belies. Her friends are among several States, and she is a daughter of Mrs. Andrew J. Boyd and of the late Colonel Boyd, who was one of the first citizens of Piedmont North Carolina.

WHEELER IN SALISBURY

The New Town of Spencer is Undergo-

The New Town of Spencer is Undergoing Many improvements.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., May 22.—General
Joe Wheeler stopped over in Salisbury
Sunday, He was met by Captain R. W.
Price, with whom he visited points of historic interest in Salisbury.
While here on a visit, Mr. J. Rose, of Manchester, Va., received a message informing him of the sudden death of his gon in Manchester. It is learned that the young man fell from a scaffold, sustain-

Cordes, Mosby & Co. EVENTS IN

Some Hot Weather Necessities

Enticingly Low Priced. Negligee Shirts.

Carefully made, cut full and wide, made of extra quality Madras, carefully selected, both plain and plaited bosoms $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Gentlemen's Extra Quality White Dress Negligee Shirts, tucked, plaited Gentlemen's Extra Quality Feather-Weight Dress Negligee Shirts; spe-

Some Hosiery Specials.

Ladies' Fast-Black Gauze Lisie Hose, double heels, soles and toes, actually worth 35c.; special......a5c. Ladies' Fanny Dropstitch Gauze Lisle Hose, double heels, soles and toes.

Children's Fancy Lace Lisle Socks, new patterns, colors white, black, Saturday, Memorial Day, our store closes at 1 o'clock.

Cordes, Mosby & Co.

ing injuries from which he died shortly afterward. Mr. Rose left yesterday for his home to attend the funeral.

The Colored State Normal commencement exercises took place at Livingston College, Tuesday night. A very creditable programme was rendered and the orations were of high order. Addresses were made by Hon. Theo. F. Klutts, Hon. John S. Henderson and others. In a fitting speech, the diplomas were presented by Captain J. A. Ramsey.

The closing exercises of Spencer Graded School were held last night, when the address was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Cox, of Fath.

Spencer has been connected with the long-distance telephone system, the first phone being placed yesterday in the office of the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company.

It is learned that the Southern Rail-fice of the Wachovia Loan and Company.

It is learned that the Southern Railway will erect a handsome new hotel near its depot in Spencer and arrange to make this a meal point for all trains north and south. It is also understood that a new building will be erected for the yard-master's office and telegraph office, which will also be located at or near the present depot. There is considerable talk of the proposed new train on the Western Road between Salisbury and Knoxville.

CONFLICT OF COURTS

Arrange to Build a Large Tobacco Sales Warehouse-Commencements.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., May 28—The condemation proceedings of the Seaboard Air Line, set for yesterday, in which the above road sought before Probate Judge C. B. Green, of the Circuit Court, to have a jury to condemn and assess damages on a portion of Peabody Street, claimed by a portion of Peabody Street, claimed by the Southern, were brought to a stop by the order of Judge Purnell, ordering the quee removed to his court, the Federal. As this mandate would have brought about conflict between the State and Fed-eral authorities, Judge Green postponed the hearing of the case for two weeks in order that he might learn more of his statutes in the premises.

in order that he high real team in the statutes in the premises.

The graded school commencements are scheduled to begin to-morrow, while the Southern Conservatory of Music started its exercises this morning under most fattering auspices. There were several graduates.

The Board of Trade has arranged for the building of large new tobacco sales ware-houses. The property has been secured and work on the building will commence at once and be completed in time for at once lind to this year's crop.

There is general complaint of dull trade by the merchants. During the three next months they will as a rule close their stores at 7 P. M...

Mrs. General J. S. Carr is quite sick, but reported better this morning.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch WINSTON-BALEM, N. C., May 28.-The WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., May 23.—The Winston-Salem Athiotic Association to day contracted with J. A. Browin, coach for Davidson to organize a strong base-ball team at once. The money has been subscribed to keep the citb in the field all summer. Charlotte, Greensbore, Durham, Concord and High Point will organize teams, all of them to be composed principally of college players.

This will make a six-team league.

Dr. John Hannon, of Union-Station, will lecture to-night at Contenary on "Dynamite." The lecture will be complimentary to the members of the church, the Epworth League and their friends. All are invited.

An operation was performed Wednes-day on Mrs. Zac E. Woodall, and her condition is now most favorable.

PIANO

To-day we offer a $400 Plano for $220—a fine Plano, beautiful case, a great bargain. This Plano was taken as part payment on a Stieff, full octave, B pedals and in first-class condition. Terms $10 cash and $7 per month.

STIEFF 431 East Broad Street, Richmond, Va.

J. E. DUNBAR, Mgr.

Ca Destructive manual

WAS A RED LETTER DAY

Crowning Events of the Carnival at Reidsville.

HONOR QUEEN AND MAIDS

General Julian S. Carr Addresses the Confederate Veterans, and Colonel John S. Cunningham Speaks on Organization to Farmers

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) has been the greatest day of Reidsville's carnival yet in point of attendance. The tournament this morning was witnessed by thousands of people, and Mr. Wallec, Blackwell won first prize, with Messrs. Watt Richardson and T. C. Ward and A. H. Golloway, Jr., won next honors, while Horace Whitsett got prize for best

GRAND BALL There is a grand ball to-night, at which Misses Elsie Gunp, Margaret Walters, Annie Williams and Kate Haigh re-ceived the honors of the successful ceived the honors of the successful knights.

The parade after the tournament and the crowning of the lovely queen of the carnival, Miss Pearl Penn, and the malds of honor, Misses Walters, Haigh and Boyd, from a stand erected on Scales Street, was a scene of beauty.

The presentation speech was made by Mr. McMichael, of Madison, in graceful, ornate language.

TO THE VETTERANS.

TO THE VETERANS. The Verterans.

The Confederate Veterans' meeting here to-day was addressed by General Julian S. Carr, who spoke in his happiest vein and was applauded at every sentence by an enthusiastic audience. Crosses of honor were presented members of veterans by the Rockingham Chapter. Captain Walters made happy remarks, after which the veterans gave their yell with a will.

a will.

FARMERS' MEETING.

The farmers' meeting was addressed by Colonel Cunningham, who entered into an explanation of the workings of farmers' protective association, and made a powerful speech upon the necessity of the farmers' organization for their protection.

He stated that in all sections of the Sintes farmers were deeply concerned about the organization. He is devoting his entire time to the work of binding them together.

Dr. McIver made a fine speech; also, as did Mr. T. B. Parker, of Rajeigh.

ALWAYS RAN AT A LOSS

One of Oldest Cotton Mills in Charlotte Goes Into Liquidation.

(Special to The '11mes-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., Muy 28,-The Nector Cotton Mills, one of the oldest mills in North Carolina, has decided to mills in North Carolina, has decided to petition the courts to appoint a receiver for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the company as speedily as possible. The mill owes about $20,000.

Dr. J. H. McAden, formerly president of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association; M. P. Pegram, president of the First National Bank, of this city, and Geo. E. Wilson, a prominent capitalist, of Charlotte, are endorsers for the mill. These gentlemen will name the receiver. The mill was built fourteen years ago, being the second one to be erected in Charlotte. It has always run at a loss, said to be on account of inferior machinery.

A number of women in Charlotte own big blocks of stock.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET

Interesting Event This Evening in the Big Hall at the Temple.

The long-looked-for great social event of the Young Men's Christian Associa-tion will take place in the Masonic Tem-ple banquet hall to-night. The reception will begin at 8:30 o'clock, supper being ple banquet hall to-night. The recoption will begin at $3.0 o'clock, supper being served exactly at $9.

The affair is in charge of a committee, consisting of Dr. Robert F. Williams, Neil D. Sills, W. Cary Wattson, James W. Gordon, Charles E. Brauer and General Becretary S. K. McKee.

Thilow's orchestra will furnish the music, Krouse, the Temple caterer, will dispense the viands. Major Elijah W. Halford, of the United Bates Army, will be the out-of-time speaker. Hon, Joseph E. Willard, lleutenant-kovernor of Virginia, Rev. Robert Strange, rector of St. Paul's Hon, E. C. Folkes and James W. Gordon Will respond to toasts.

The banquet is given to those who, in the recent membership contest, secured new members, and unto the members secured. The themes to be discussed will be of intense interest, full of humor and sense. The sole object of the banquet is fellowship and sociability and it has been hinted that this is but the beginning of an annual syent, which will be looked forward to from year to year, by the members.

General Becretary McKee returned to bers.

General Secretary McKee returned to the city yesterday morning and those entitled to invitations should see him without fail, before 6 o'clook to-day.

PETERSBURG

Ferndale Park Casino to Open Next Monday.

SINGING NOT DISTURBANCE

Mayor Jones Declares that Harmony When It Does Not Disturb Anyone, Does Not Violate the Ordinance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., May 28.—From reports there is no opposition to the county officers of Prince George to be re-elected at the next election, except Commissioner of the Revenue. Mr. Charles Harrison will oppose Mr. Robert Burrow, the present incumbent. Mr. John J. Cocke, who for many years has been the Commonwealth's Attorney for the county, has not defi-many years has been the Commonweath a Attorney for the county, has not defi-nitely determined whether or not he will come up for re-election. Mr. Cocke's health has been exceedingly feeble for several months. Mr. T. A. Brown, of Disputanta, will probably be a candidate for the office.

Mr. W. W. Taylor, of Brandon, will oppose Dr. S. B. Barham in his candidacy for re-election to the Legislature from the counties of Prince George and Surry.

Colonel E. M. Field, who was thrown from his buggy and quite painfully hurt last evening, is much better to-day, and none of the injuries he received are sari-

FERNDALE CASINO.

A party of about one hundred and twenty-five people will some to Petersburg Monday evening over the electric rallway to attend the opening of the Ferndule Park Casino in this city. The Casino will be under the management of Mr. Joseph E. Hursts, of Richmond, and under the personal direction of Mr. Erl P. Adams.

The blos for the "Randolph," the new hotel to be built in this city, were opened last night, but the contract has not yet been given out.

Miss Lillian T. Vaughan, daughter of Captain George W. Vaughan, and Mr. T. Carson Gregory, were married at Wesley Methodist Church at 7:20 o'clock last evening, Miss Ruth H. Enniss was maid of honor. FERNDALE CASINO.

of honor.

The closing exercises of the John H.
Dix Industrial School at Dinwiddle Courthouse will take place June 4th, after a house will take place June 4th, after a very successful session.

HARMONY NO CRIME.

Several men were before Mayor Jones this morning, charged with singing on the streets. The Mayor in discharging thom said that, in his opinion, harmonious singing, when it did not disturb any one, was not a violation of the city or dinance. It is when improper songs are sung, or ribald singing is indulged in that singing becomes a nulsance.

that singing becomes a nulsance.

The evangelistic meeting conducted by Rev. George R. Stuart, at West Hill warehouse last night was attended by the usual large congregation. The ser-mon was an unusually strong one, and many were converted at its close. At the noon-day service to-day a large

At the noon-day service to-day a large number of people arose and told of prayers that were made for the conversion of friends having been answered.

Mr. Stuart visited the American cigar factory, on Byrne Street, yesterday afternoon and preached to the young ladies who are employed there.

Mr. Stuart will probably stay in Petersburg until Sunday night, at which time he will preach his "stump-digging" sermon.

sermon.

Interest in these meetings has increased at each service, and about one hundred and fifty conversions has been made.

BARBERS TO CLOSE EARLY.

The barbers in Petersburg are endeavoring to get all the barbers in the city to agree to close their shop at 8 o'clock. It is probable that this will be done.

The postoffice in this city will be open on Saturday only until 12 o'clock for the sale of stamps and delivery of mali, this being the national Memorial Day.

A heavy rain, accompanied by severe thunder and lightning, swept over Petersburg this afternoon.

The conference of the Young Men's Christian Association secretaries and employed officers closed a very successful two days' session at the Young Men's Christian Association in this city has evening. Mr. L. A. Coulter, State Secretary, of Richmond, said that not fewer than 185,000 young men in small towns are not reached by the association. Mr. Coulter favors increasing the number of associations in small towns, and attempted to organize the work in counties of the State where there is no association.

BUSINESS AND RELIGION.

Chairman B. S. Fenn conducted the subject, 'Business Management.' This tion.

BUSINESS AND RELIGION.

Chairman B. S. Fenn conducted the subject, "Business Management." This matter was earnestly discussed, Mr. M. K. McKee, of Richmond, taking a leading part. Mr. McKee, at the evening session, discussed "Religious Work." He went to show that the great meetings held by several associations are large factors for good. From this discussion resulted the appointment of a committee to suggest a policy for the association, and the committee appointed consisted of Mr. L. A. Coulter and Mr. C. W. Hardy, both of Richmond. Mr. C. W. Hardy, both of Richmond. Mr. H. A. Gillis, superintendent of the American Locomotive Works, of Richmond, read a paper, which was heartly enjoyed.

Mr. S. D. Gordon, of Ohlo, who conducted the Bibbe reading during the session, gave a very impressive reading at the evening session. The policy for religious work was then prosented by Mr. Coulter, suggestive work along the lines of men's meetings, Bible study, missions and personal work. "Bducational Work" was the subject presented by Mr. C. C. Kent, Jr., of Newport News, The conference adjourned until June, 1904.

WATER METER AT JAIL

Superintendent Bolling Thinks Too Much Water is Being Used.

Much Water is Being Used.

A large amount of work was done by the Water Committee last night in addition to the progress made on the electrolysis measure.

Superintendent Boilling suggested that too much water was being used unnecessarily at the city fall, and at the suggestion of Mr. Anderson a committee, embracing the charman of the committee, the Superintendent of Water, the City Attorney and Mr. Mills, was appointed to look into the matter and report as to the expediency of puttins in a moter.

Another resolution was passed requiring all contractors who desire to use city water in their work to apply a meter at their own expense.

T. FRANCIS GREEN.

WM. PLEASANTS REDD.

GREEN & REDD. REAL ESTATE AGENTS. No. 1114 EAST MAIN STREET.

RICHMOND, VA., May 8th, 1903. Mesars, T. Francis Green and Wm. Pleasants Redd beg to announce that they have this day entered into a co-partnership for the conduct of the Real Estate business and have opened offices at No. 1114 East Main Street. Very respectfully,

T. FRANCIS GREEN. WM. PLEASANTS REDD.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR

On Trial for the Killing Ludlow Skinner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., May 28. The hearing of the writ of habens corpus in the case of Ernest Haywood for the killing of 8:80 o'clock this afternoon before Asso clate Justices R. M. Douglass and Platt D. Walker. Immense crowds attended the hearing. Haywood shows considerably the bad effects of imprisonment, being pale and very thin. Mr. Errest Haywood his attorneys, Messrs. James H. Pou Colonel T. M. Argo, Colonel J. C. L. Har-

Colonel T. M. Argo, Colonel J. C. L. Harris, Mr. S. G. Ryan, J. N. Holding, Captain W. H. Day, and by his brothers, Messrs. A. W. Haywood, Edgar Haywood and Dr. Hubert A. Haywood.
Counsel for the prosecution are all here—Walter B. Daniel, Weldon, acting solicitor; J. E. Woodard, Wilson; Donald Gilliam, Tarboro; H. E. Norris, Robert Strong, Raleigh.

Strong, Raleigh.

The first winess was Bernard A.
Schmitz, an attorney of Baltimore. He said: "Charles B. Hocutt and I were said: "charles B. Hocutt and I were Schmitz, an attorney of Battianous, said: "Charles B. Hocutt and I were at the bank corner, nearly opposite the postoffice; saw two men at the steps of the postoffice, seemingly in excited argument; one man strick feel, catching, his hand on the slab, near the steps. The other man (Skinner) backed off a few steps, then started towards the man who was struck as if to renew the attack. Then I heard the shot. Mr. Skinner staggered back to the curb; then I heard the second shot. When the first shot was fired, Skinner had his hand in a peculiar manner about his side. I think he was trying to pull a revolver. After the second shot Mr. Skinner was at the curb; then he circled and fell across the street car track."

Robert N. Simms, a prominent attorney of Raleigh, was the next witness. His car track."

Robert N. Simms, a prominent attorney of Raleigh, was the next witness. His statement follows: "My attention was drawn to two men, who seemed to be struggling. The outer man (Skinner) struck Haywood. He fell and caught on his hand. Skinner sprang back, faced Haywood about the time the first shot was fired. Skinner hesitated a moment, then went towards the car track. When about ten feet this side of the car track the second shot was fired. He was going faster than a walk. He grossed the track and fell. I did not make any public statement until next morning. I read the papers and saw that the evidence adduced at the coroner's inquest was not what I saw. I then told my brother-inlaw and afterwards the defendant lawyers."

Simms was subjected to a rigid crossexmination, in which he held to his statement and explained his connection

Simms was subjected to a rigid cross-examination, in which he held to his statement and explained his connection with the case and why his firm refused to be counsel on either side. He said there was no appreciable time between the two shots fired by Haywood.

A great number of character witnesses were introduced to prove Simms' character, which defendant's counsel declared had been assailed by many since he became a witness.

Among them were Governor Aycock, N. B. Broughton, Dr. T. N. Ivey, Mayor Powell, Dr. R. T. Vann; all paid him highest possible tributes.

Court took recess at 6 o'clock until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

A gentleman who has recently visited Major W. A. Anderson at Chase City, where the latter has been for some time trying to recuperate his health, says the Major is much improved and that his physican thinks he will be all right by September. According to the gentleman who visited him, Major Anderson is looking well and is in fine spirits.

THE CHANGES ARE REVOLUTIONARY

So Declares Sir Charles Dilke in Discussion of Mr. Chamberlain's Fiscal Views.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, May 28.—On the motion being made for the Whitsuntide adjournment of the House of Commons, Sir Chas. Dilke (Advanced Liberal) to-day raised a discussion on the fiscal views recently enunciated by Colonial Secretary Chamborlain Sir Charles maintained that Mr. Chamberiain had suggested a revolutionthe Wester Committee last night in addition to the progress made on the electrolysis measure.

Superintendent Bolling suggested that too much water was being used unnecessarily at the city fall, and at the suggestion of Mr. Anderson a committee, embracing the chairman of the committee, the Superintendent of Water, the City Attorney and Mr. Mills, was appointed to look into the matter and report as to the expediency of putting in a moter.

Another resolution was passed requiring all contractors who desire to use city water in their work to apply a meter at their own expense.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

To Act With Chamber of Commerce About the Cityde Line.

A committee of five was appointed at the meeting of the Committee on James River improvement last night to act with a similar committee from the Chamber of Commerce directorate in formulating a committee of the passing of the Cityde line from the Chamber of Commerce directorate in formulating a the less said about it the better for the city.

This action was opposed by Mr. Myers, who said the "Cityde line had sone, and the less said about it the better for the city."

Those on the committee are: Messrs. Curris, Pollock, Starke, Crenshaw and Billyson. The members present besides the above were Messrs. Gillman, Fergusson, Garbar and Myers.

AUCTION SALES-THIS DAY. Geo. W. Mayo,

ERNEST HAYWOOD H OUSEHOLD FURNITURE IRON MATTING CROCKERY, &C., AT AUCTION.

I will sell for account of the owner, at No. 1013 East Clay Street, at 10:30 A. M. FERIDAY, MAY 20TH, 1903.
6 Iron Heds, 6 Tables, 2 Extension Tables, 3 Bed Room Suits, 15 Table Cloths, 6 Mattresses, Wardrobes, Bed Line, Chairs, Fockers, Table Crockery and Glassware, Toilet Sels, Matting and numerous other articles.

GEO. H. VALENTINE, Salesman. By A. J. Chewning Company, Real Estate Auctioneers. AUCTION BALE

Friday, May 29th, 1903. Seven of the Nicest Lots on Church Hill, Cor. 31st and Leigh Sts.

Commencing at 8 o'clock P. M. Buy one and you will not regret it.

By Charles A. Rose, Real Estate Auctioneers, No. 1 North Ninth Street.

A UCTION BALE OF

CENTRALLY LOCATED Small Brick Residence No. 104 South Cherry Street.

ses, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 27TH, AT 6 P. M. The dwelling contains 8 large rooms, with lot fronting 16 feet 2 inches, by 64 feet, between parallel lines, to a 10 foot feet, between parallel lines, to alloy.

This property is well located and well adapted for renting purposes.

TERMS—Dasy and announced at sale.

TERMS—Dasy and announced at sale.

Audoloncer.

The above sale is postponed until FRI-DAY, MAY 29TH, at 6 P. M., on account of rain. CHARLES A ROSE

By Sutton & Co., Real Estate Auctioneers, Corner of Tenth and Bank Streets.

624 AND 625 NORTH SEVENTBENTH STREET. In execution of a degree of the Richmond Chancery Court entered on the 10th day of March, 1990, in the suit of Frances A. Glassell vs. James McNamnra and others, the undersigned Special Commissioner, appointed thereby, shall offer or sale, at public auction, upon the premisers.

for sale, at public auction, upon the premises. On FRIDAY, MAY 20TH, 1993, at 5-90 o'clock P. M., the property above described.

Tonement No. 625 contains five or six rooms and is situated on the east side of Seventeenth Street, 37 1-2 feet south of Carrington Street. Lot fronts 17 1-2 feet more or less, with a depth of 115 feet.

Tonement No. 624 fronts on the west side of Seventeenth Street 14 8-4 feet, more or less, running back 66 feet, more or less, running back 66 feet, more or less, and contains about four rooms.

TERMS—One-third cash, the balance in two equal instainents at 8 and 13 months for negotiable notes, with interest added and the title retained until the purchase money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the court, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

The bond required of the Special Commissioner by the above decree has been duly given.

CHAS, O. SAVILLE, Clerk.

May 24-tds CHAS, O. SAVILLE, Clerk,

By J. B. Elam & Co., Real Estate Auctioneers.

P UBLIC AUCTION SALE, FOR THE PURPOSE OF DIVISION OF THAT - PULIPOSE OF DIVISION OF THAT WELL-LOCATED AND VALUABLE TWO-STORY BRICK STORE, ON NORTH SIDE CARY STREET, BETWEEN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH STREETS,

No. 718 East Cary Street. No. 718 East Cary Street.

By direction of the parties in interest, and for the purpose of division, we shall sell, by auction, on the promises on WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1903, at 6 o'clock P. M., the above mamed destrably-located, substantial and valuable business property, the lot fronting twenty-one and one-third (21-3) feet, running back within parallel lines seventy-eight (78) feet to an alloy 15 feet wide, and the storehouse thereon, being well built and of a very substantial character.

This property, in close proximity to the business centers of Main and Cary Streets, and with extensive and costly improvements in progress around it, must increase in value, and this sale affords the capitalist, investor and dealers generally an opportunity of which they are respectfully urged to avail themselves.

TERMS—Liberal and announced at sale, J. B. ELAM & CO.,
May 22-5t

POSTPONEMENT.

May 23-5t

POSTPONEMENT.

The above sale is postponed on account of rain until FRIDAY, 2011 INSTANT, at 6 o'clock P. M. J. B. ELAM & CO. Auctioneers.

AUCTION SALES-THIS DAY.

By Pollard & Bagby,

A UCTION SALE OF AN Attractive Two-Story Frame.

tween Albemarie and Spring Sts., On Wednesday, May 27, 1903, at 6 o'clock the above mentioned dwelling, containing 7 rooms; modern improvements. Terms, One-fourth cash, balance 6, 12, 18 and 2 months.

POLLARD & BAGBY, My 24 tds

AUCTION SALES-FUTURE DAYS

By J. B. Elam & Co., Real Estate Augustoneers

TRUSTEE'S GALE No. 1113 N. 21st St.,

E XECUTOR'S SALE OF A VALUA SMALL BUT COMPORTABLE IN PROVEMENTS THEREON. ABOUT 1:2 MILES NORTH OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND, ADJOINING THE LAND

No North Twenty-First Street.

In Fairmount.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust, dated September 19, 19902, and recorded in Henrico County Court cierk's office in deed on the county Court cierk's office in deed on the property of the county of the debt secured thereby, and having been required by the beneficiary, therein so to do, I, will on MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1980, at 5 o'clock P. M., on the premises, proceed to sell by public auction the property conveyed therein, viz All that certain lot of land with all the improvements thereon, in the town of Fairmount, Henrico county, Va., beginning at a point on the western line of Twenty-first Street, 199 feet, 6 inches south of Fairmount Avenue, and extending southwardly and fronting on the western line of Twenty-first Street, 199 feet, 6 inches south of Fairmount Avenue, and extending southwardly and fronting on the western line of Twenty-first Street 25 feet 2 inches, and running back between parallel lines 125 feet, 11 inches, to an alicy 1 feet wide.

This is one of the best locations in the town, being on the square with the Haptist Church and near school and electric car line. The dwelling is well built and has 7 rooms and necessary completed and has 7 rooms and necessary completed and a feet of sile, all taxes to fay of sale, all taxes to fay of sa IN FAIRMOUNT.

By Augustine Royall & Co.

Auctioneers.

By Augustine Royall & Co.

Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers.
Leader Building, Manchester, Va.

A UCTION SALE OF A LARGE LOT

ERRY CONSISTING IN PART OF 1

HORSIS, HORSIS, ESS & HOSE, 2 COWS, MOWER, THRESHER, REAFER, WAG, 1

ON CART, HARDES, CORNIENTS, CORNIEST, WAG, 1

FURNITURE, FARMINES, CORNIEST, WAG, 1

FURNITURE, THRESHER, REAFER, WAG, 1

FURNITURE, THRESHER, TOF ON THE STORE OF THE STORE ON THE STORE OF THE

Detached Dwelling,

No. 429, on East Side of Pine, be-

The above sale is postponed on account of rain until FRIDAY, MAY 29TH, 1908, at same hour.

POLLARD & BAGEY,

TY-FIRST STREET, BETWEEN R STREETS, IN FAIRMOUNT.

R STREETS, IN FAIRMOUNT.

In execution of a deed of trust from Joshua P. F. Tisale and wife, dated May 15, 1000, recorded in D. B. 159 A. page 23, Henrico County Court, default having been made in the debt secured, and being required so to do by the beneficiary, the undersigned trustee will sell by public auction on the premises, on TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1900.

at 8 o'clock P. M. the real estate described in the said deed, and situated as above stated, the lot fronting 30 feet, having a depth between parallel lines of 128 8-12 feet to an alloy 14 feet wide, and having thereon a very desirable, conveniently appointed, and attractive two-story frame dwelling house and other improvements.

TERMS—Cash as to the expenses of sale, taxes to day of sale, and the sum of $524, with interest thereon the black may, 1993, and as to the condition terms to be announced at time of sale, J. B. ELAM & CO., Auctioneers.

May 28-tds

Hanrico County Court, at I o'clock I.

M., the property above referred to, containing 60 3-4 acres of nice land, with fair improvements, consisting of dwelling, kitchen, stable, &c. This property would make a good home and doubtless it will prove a good speculative holding. The dwelling house contains $ 0 r 4 rooms, and is quite comfortable, though plain; one side of the land is bordered by a good live stream, and, altogether, the place is well watered. For further particulars well watered. For further particulars well watered. For further particulars contained to inspect a plat of the property, see the auctioneer.

TERMIS—One-third cash and the balance at one and two years for notes with interest added and secured by a deed of trust; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

Surviving Executor,

By J. D. Carneal & Son, Real Estate Auctioneers.

T RUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE OF AN ATTRACTIVE AND WELL IO-